PARAMENTS

Liturgical colors have an instructional purpose and point us to the life of Christ and the great acts of redemptive history.

These colored hangings, called paraments, adorn the pulpit, communion table, and baptismal font.

Green represents spiritual growth and world missions.

It is displayed during “ordinary time,” which is the period between Pentecost and Advent.

† The Affirmation of Faith

The Apostles’ Creed

Leader: O Christian, what do you believe?

Unison: I believe in God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth. I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried; he descended into hell. The third day he rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty. From there he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

NOTES

---

---

DISCUSSION AND APPLICATION

---

- ❖ Do you believe God will do his work in your life and in the lives of others the way he says he will do it? What evidence is there that you believe this?
- ❖ The setup of the tabernacle and the glory of God in sight of the people is a _____ creation event. How is the tabernacle like a mobile Mt. Sinai?
- ❖ The tent was set apart as a place of worship, what might this detail tell us about our own worship and the importance of that worship?
- ❖ God dwells with his people at creation. He dwells with his people in the tabernacle. He dwells with his people in the temple. Follow this pattern to its necessary and intended conclusion for the church.
- ❖ What has the Lord shown you about himself and your relationship to him through our time in Exodus?
