PARAMENTS

Liturgical colors have an instructional purpose and point us to the life of Christ and the great acts of redemptive history.

These colored hangings, called paraments, adorn the pulpit, communion table, and baptismal font.

Green represents spiritual growth and world missions.

It is displayed during “ordinary time,” which is the period between Pentecost and Advent.

CELEBRATION of WORSHIP

The Greeting and Announcements

The Prelude

*During this time, be prayerful and reverent in preparation for the worship of our holy God in His sanctuary.
(Please silence all phones and electronic devices.)*

† The Call to Worship

Psalm 147:1–7

Leader: Praise the LORD! For it is good to sing praises to our God; for it is pleasant, and a song of praise is fitting. The LORD builds up Jerusalem; he gathers the outcasts of Israel. He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds. He determines the number of the stars; he gives to all of them their names. Great is our Lord, and abundant in power; his understanding is beyond measure. The LORD lifts up the humble; he casts the wicked to the ground. Sing to the LORD with thanksgiving; make melody to our God on the lyre!

The Reading of the Law

Westminster Shorter Catechism, 63–65

Leader: What is the fifth commandment?

Unison: The fifth commandment is, “Honor your father and your mother, that your days may be long in the land that the LORD your God is giving you.”

Leader: What is required in the fifth commandment?

Unison: The fifth commandment requires the preserving the honor, and performing the duties, belonging to everyone in their various places and relations, as superiors, inferiors, or equals.

Leader: What is forbidden in the fifth commandment?

Unison: The fifth commandment forbids the neglecting of, or doing anything against, the honor and duty which belongs to everyone in their various places and relations.

The Corporate Prayer of Confession

Unison: Holy Father, blessed Son, and beloved Holy Spirit: how gracious you are to have granted us, as your image-bearers, the distinct honor of reflecting your fatherhood and sonship within our homes, realities rooted in your eternal perfection and beauty as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Our calling to parent children faithfully and to be children who honor our parents seems to whisper of trinitarian wonder, however faintly. Our right obedience, respect, and relation to our father and mother can be virtual cracks in the universe to learn truths about you. On the other hand, we also better understand the searing pain and caustic confusion that commonly accompanies both parents and children who choose to distort your commanded roles in the home. Father of lights, infuse the most daily routines of family in our homes with parents who love and children who honor. And where both roles have been long ignored, you who are the Eternal Father, redesign our childlike hearts and minds to honor you as our Father in all we do. In the name of the Son of the Father, the Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Individual Prayers of Confession

The Assurance of Pardon

Colossians 3:12–20

Leader: Put on then, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, compassionate hearts, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience, bearing with one another and, if one has a complaint against another, forgiving each other; as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. And above all these put on love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony. And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in one body. And be thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, teaching and admonishing one another in all wisdom, singing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, with thankfulness in your hearts to God. And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him. Wives, submit to your husbands, as is fitting in the Lord. Husbands, love your wives, and do not be harsh with them. Children, obey your parents in everything, for this pleases the Lord.

Our Worship in the World for the World

*Salvation and life in union with Christ frees us to worship and work for the glory of God and the fulfillment of our created purpose.
In obedience to His commission, we support the work of the church in all places and faithfully serve in the many vocations to which we have been called.*

The Prayers of the People

*God calls us to be a praying people.
Let us join in prayer, offering our praise,
thanksgiving, and intercession to God.*

The Offertory

Our offering is an act of worship in which we express our gratitude and reliance on God.

For those of you who are guests with us today, giving is not obligatory.

We are eager to share with you more about our church and its ministry and to invite you to participate with us as you are called by God.

If you have filled out a visitor's card, please place it in the plate as it is passed.

The Postlude

*As you leave the sanctuary today, may you know the hope to which God has called you, experience the riches of his glorious inheritance in the saints,
and trust his incomparably great power for us who believe.*

*Please help us love our community by recycling your unneeded bulletins as you leave.
A recycling bin is located by the door in the narthex.*

NOTES

DISCUSSION AND APPLICATION

- ❖ What are some of the factors that make this word hard to hear? How is the perception of authority in our time challenged by this command?
- ❖ We are part of a new family in Jesus. Does this change the parent/child relationship? If so, how? What impact does our spiritual family have on our ability to obey this command?
- ❖ Spend some time considering what it means to honor parents at the different ages and seasons of life. What does this look like for a 5 year old? 12 year old? 24 year old? 50 year old?
