PARAMENTS

---

Liturgical colors have an instructional purpose and point us to the life of Christ and the great acts of redemptive history.

These colored hangings, called paraments, are seen on the pulpit, communion table, and baptismal font.

Purple represents royalty, repentance, and suffering. It is displayed during Lent, a time of preparation and penitence.

The Call to Confession

Romans 3:23-26

Leader: All have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith. This was to show God's righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over former sins. It was to show his righteousness at the present time, so that he might be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus.

The Corporate Confession of Sin

Unison: Holy God,

We come to you today as sinful and rebellious creatures, fully deserving your wrath and justice. We confess that we have taken your mercy for granted, belittling your holiness and minimizing our sin. Expose the hidden sins of our hearts, reveal to us your perfect holiness and burning wrath against all ungodliness, and lead us to the cross, where your wrath was poured out and your justice satisfied.

Lamb of God,

We come to you today in humility and wonder. Though we are unworthy of your love, you have graciously shown your affection to us by draining the cup of God's wrath, bearing your body on the cross, and purchasing our redemption. Because of your finished work, we have been reconciled to God and live now not as children of wrath but as sons and daughters of the King. O Christ, we praise your name! Worthy is the Lamb who was slain! Grant us grace to sing your praise, both now and forevermore. Amen.

The Private Confession of Sin

The Assurance of Pardon

Revelation 5:9-10

Leader: “Worthy are you to take the scroll and to open its seals, for you were slain, and by your blood you ransomed people for God from every tribe and language and people and nation, and you have made them a kingdom and priests to our God, and they shall reign on the earth.”

NOTES

DISCUSSION AND APPLICATION

---

- ❖ “God’s call is always accompanied by God’s gift.” What are your thoughts on this quote? When do you have a hard time trusting God to supply? How do you think through decisions that may not be as clear?
- ❖ How do we view the prophetic role of the church? Do you believe you are a spokesperson for Christ?
- ❖ Are you prone to think in terms of the ‘good old days’ or days yet to come? Do you believe there are ways to faithfully serve the Lord and his church in every season of life? How might you discern this in the season you are in right now?
- ❖ What is ‘success’ in our Christian witness? Why do we have such a hard time believing this? How does the public ministry of Jesus help calibrate our expectations and understanding of success?
