PARAMENTS

Liturgical colors have an instructional purpose and point us to the life of Christ and the great acts of redemptive history.

These colored hangings, called paraments, are seen on the pulpit, communion table, and baptismal font.

White is displayed during the Easter season. It represents the purity and glory of the risen Christ and the joy of His redeemed people.

† The Call to Worship

from Psalm 91

Leader: He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High will abide in the shadow of the Almighty. I will say to the LORD, “My refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust.” He will cover you with his pinions, and under his wings you will find refuge; his faithfulness is a shield and buckler. You will not fear the terror of the night, nor the arrow that flies by day, nor the pestilence that stalks in darkness, nor the destruction that wastes at noonday. A thousand may fall at your side, ten thousand at your right hand, but it will not come near you. “Because he holds fast to me in love, I will deliver him; I will protect him, because he knows my name. When he calls to me, I will answer him; I will be with him in trouble; I will rescue him and honor him. With long life I will satisfy him and show him my salvation.”

The Call to Confession

Isaiah 64:6

Leader: We have all become like one who is unclean, and all our righteous deeds are like a polluted garment. We all fade like a leaf, and our iniquities, like the wind, take us away.

The Corporate Prayer of Confession

from The Valley of Vision

Unison: O Lord, no day of my life has passed that has not proved me guilty in your sight. Prayers have often been from a prayerless heart. Praise has often been praiseless. Even my best works are filthy rags. Blessed Jesus, let me find shelter in your appeasing wounds. Though my sins rise to heaven, your merits soar above them. Though unrighteousness weighs me down to hell, your righteousness exalts me to the throne. All things in me call for my rejection. All things in you plead for my acceptance. I am guilty, but pardoned; lost, but saved; wandering, but found; sinning, but cleansed. Give me perpetual broken-heartedness and keep me always clinging to your cross. Amen.

The Individual Prayers of Confession

The Assurance of Pardon

Ephesians 2:8-9

Leader: For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, not a result of works, so that no one may boast.

The Prayers of the People

*God calls us to be a praying people.
Let us join in prayer, offering our praise,
thanksgiving, and intercession to God.*

The Offertory

Our offering is an act of worship in which we express our gratitude and reliance on God.

For those of you who are guests with us today, giving is not obligatory.

We are eager to share with you more about our church and its ministry and to invite you to participate with us as you are called by God.

If you have filled out a visitor's card, please place it in the plate as it is passed.

The Postlude

*As you leave the sanctuary today, may you know the hope to which God has called you, experience the riches of his glorious inheritance in the saints,
and trust his incomparably great power for us who believe.*

*Please help us love our community by recycling your unneeded bulletins as you leave.
A recycling bin is located by the door in the narthex.*

We are scheduled to celebrate the Lord's Supper next Sunday. Let us therefore follow Paul's admonition in 1 Corinthians 11:27–29 to partake of the Lord's Supper in a worthy manner by examining ourselves before the Lord. The Westminster Shorter Catechism states, "It is required of them that would worthily partake of the Lord's Supper, that they examine themselves of their knowledge to discern the Lord's body, of their faith to feed upon Him, of their repentance, love, and new obedience; lest, coming unworthily, they eat and drink judgment to themselves."

NOTES

DISCUSSION AND APPLICATION

- ❖ In what area(s) of your life do you need to submit in full obedience to the Lord? What tools has God given you to serve Him at this time and in this place? Do you trust him to provide the tools needed for full obedience?
- ❖ What power does Satan and the spiritual forces of evil really have? What comfort do you have when that power manifests itself? In his grace and love for us, God is fighting the battle against the deception of Satan. Do you believe this and thank him for it?
- ❖ What proof has God given to Pharaoh and to us? What miracle(s) must happen for us to look and be saved?
