PARAMENTS

Liturgical colors have an instructional purpose and point us to the life of Christ and the great acts of redemptive history.

These colored hangings, called paraments, adorn the pulpit, communion table, and baptismal font.

Green represents spiritual growth and world missions.

It is displayed during “ordinary time,” which is the period between Pentecost and Advent.

CELEBRATION of WORSHIP

The Greeting and Announcements

The Prelude

*During this time, be prayerful and reverent in preparation for the worship of our holy God in His sanctuary.
(Please silence all phones and electronic devices.)*

† The Processional Hymn

Hymns of Grace

Come, Ye Thankful People, Come

Nº 436

† The Call to Worship

Psalm 92:1–4

Leader: A Psalm. A Song for the Sabbath.

*It is good to give thanks to the LORD, to sing praises to your name, O Most High;
to declare your steadfast love in the morning, and your faithfulness by night, to the music of the lute and the harp, to the melody of the lyre. For you, O LORD, have made me glad by your work; at the works of your hands I sing for joy.*

† The Hymn of Praise

Hymns of Grace

Now Thank We All Our God

Nº 433

† The Prayer of Invocation

† Please stand, as able

The Reading of the Law

Westminster Shorter Catechism, 57–58, 61

Leader: What is the fourth commandment?

Unison: The fourth commandment is, “Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy. Six days you shall labor, and do all your work, but the seventh day is a Sabbath to the LORD your God. On it you shall not do any work, you, or your son, or your daughter, your male servant, or your female servant, or your livestock, or the sojourner who is within your gates. For in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them, and rested on the seventh day. Therefore the LORD blessed the Sabbath day and made it holy.”

Leader: What is required in the fourth commandment?

Unison: The fourth commandment requires the keeping holy to God such set times as he has appointed in his Word; expressly one whole day in seven, to be a holy sabbath to himself.

Leader: What is forbidden in the fourth commandment?

Unison: The fourth commandment forbids the omission, or careless performance, of the duties required, and the profaning the day by idleness, or doing that which is in itself sinful, or by unnecessary thoughts, words, or works, about our worldly employments or recreations.

The Corporate Prayer of Confession

Unison: Beloved Bestower of Sabbath and rest, our resistance to your explicit command to cease from striving, lay down our labor, and push the “stop” button on pressure and performance unmasks our maniacal self-reliance. We believe the lie that life finally depends upon our own work, which makes us rabidly resist stopping for a season of God-honoring refreshment. Sabbath-creating and Sabbath-commanding King, graciously assail every vestige of self-impressed folly that builds our life on us instead of you, and founds our life’s rhythm on frenzy, not friendship, with you. Give sabbatical repentance to our exhausted hearts and minds as you bid us afresh in Gospel grace to rest as your children. In the name of the Sabbath himself, Jesus, our Lord, Amen.

The Individual Prayers of Confession

The Assurance of Pardon

Hebrews 4:9–11

Leader: So then, there remains a Sabbath rest for the people of God, for whoever has entered God's rest has also rested from his works as God did from his. Let us therefore strive to enter that rest, so that no one may fall by the same sort of disobedience.

† The Hymn of Trust

My Heart Is Filled with Thankfulness

Hymns of Grace

Nº 374

The Prayers of the People

*God calls us to be a praying people.
Let us join in prayer, offering our praise,
thanksgiving, and intercession to God.*

The Lord's Prayer

Unison: Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

The Offertory

There Is a Higher Throne

Hymns of Grace

Nº 119

*Our offering is an act of worship in which we express our gratitude and reliance on God.
For those of you who are guests with us today, giving is not obligatory.
We are eager to share with you more about our church and its ministry and to invite you to participate with us as you are called by God.
If you have filled out a visitor's card, please place it in the plate as it is passed.*

The Postlude

*As you leave the sanctuary today, may you know the hope to which God has called you, experience the riches of his glorious inheritance in the saints,
and trust his incomparably great power for us who believe.*

*Please help us love our community by recycling your unneeded bulletins as you leave.
A recycling bin is located by the door in the narthex.*

NOTES

DISCUSSION AND APPLICATION

- ❖ Try and name a few reasons why we need the 4th commandment. [Hint: Sabbath observance takes _____]
- ❖ Who is Lord of the Sabbath in the NT? How does this relate to its fulfillment and application for us today?
- ❖ How would distinguish the Lord's Day from other days of restful activity or vacation? What would be considered works of "necessity and mercy"? What would not?
