PARAMENTS

Liturgical colors have an instructional purpose and point us to the life of Christ and the great acts of redemptive history.

These colored hangings, called paraments, adorn the pulpit, communion table, and baptismal font.

Green represents spiritual growth and world missions.

It is displayed during “ordinary time,” which is the period between Epiphany and Lent.

CELEBRATION of WORSHIP

The Greeting and Announcements

The Prelude

*During this time, be prayerful and reverent in preparation for the worship of our holy God in His sanctuary.
(Please silence all phones and electronic devices.)*

† The Processional Hymn

Hymns of Grace

Come, Thou Almighty King

Nº 326

† The Call to Worship

from Psalm 150

Leader: *Praise the LORD! Praise God in his sanctuary; praise him in his mighty heavens!
Praise him for his mighty deeds; praise him according to his excellent greatness! Let everything that has breath praise the LORD! Praise the LORD!*

† The Hymn of Praise

Hymns of Grace

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty

Nº 2

† The Prayer of Invocation

† Please stand, as able

The Reading of the Law

Westminster Shorter Catechism, 73–75

Leader: What is the eighth commandment?

Unison: The eighth commandment is, “You shall not steal.”

Leader: What is required in the eighth commandment?

Unison: The eighth commandment requires the lawful obtaining and furthering the wealth and outward estate of ourselves and others.

Leader: What is forbidden in the eighth commandment?

Unison: The eighth commandment forbids whatsoever does, or may, unjustly hinder our own, or our neighbor’s wealth or outward estate.

The Corporate Prayer of Confession

Unison: Glorious God, only you are worthy of all our worship. And yet, our greatest theft is seeking to rob you of your glory. In seeking to steal worship from you, we then engage in hostile takeover of your creation with the delusion that we are owners rather than stewards. Convict us of our glory theft and grant us brokenness and humility. Help us to hear your word in Malachi, “You rob me in tithes and offerings.” We are full of fearful self-protection and insatiable self-consumption. We hoard the resources that you have given us for our own pleasures and preferences and mistakenly seek security in the gifts rather than the Giver. Guard our hearts from inordinate prizing and protecting of worldly goods, and grant us strength to grow in generosity and joy. In the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, our true provision and only security, Amen.

The Individual Prayers of Confession

The Assurance of Pardon

Isaiah 55:1–3

Leader: “Come, everyone who thirsts, come to the waters; and he who has no money, come, buy and eat! Come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. Why do you spend your money for that which is not bread, and your labor for that which does not satisfy? Listen diligently to me, and eat what is good, and delight yourselves in rich food. Incline your ear, and come to me; hear, that your soul may live; and I will make with you an everlasting covenant, my steadfast, sure love for David.”

† The Hymn of Trust

Hymns of Grace

My Worth Is Not in What I Own

Nº 98

Our Worship in the World for the World

*Salvation and life in union with Christ frees us to worship and work for the glory of God and the fulfillment of our created purpose.
In obedience to His commission, we support the work of the church in all places and faithfully serve in the many vocations to which we have been called.*

The Prayers of the People

*God calls us to be a praying people.
Let us join in prayer, offering our praise,
thanksgiving, and intercession to God.*

The Offertory

*Our offering is an act of worship in which we express our gratitude and reliance on God.
For those of you who are guests with us today, giving is not obligatory.
We are eager to share with you more about our church and its ministry and to invite you to participate with us as you are called by God.
If you have filled out a visitor’s card, please place it in the plate as it is passed.*

The Postlude

*As you leave the sanctuary today, may you know the hope to which God has called you, experience the riches of his glorious inheritance in the saints,
and trust his incomparably great power for us who believe.*

*Please help us love our community by recycling your unneeded bulletins as you leave.
A recycling bin is located by the door in the narthex.*

NOTES

DISCUSSION AND APPLICATION

- ❖ We must consider the greed, selfishness, jealousy, and laziness that's underneath the thieving heart. Where are you prone to wonder from God's design for human flourishing and worship here? Do you need to repent and make reparations in anyway?
- ❖ How does stealing show a fear of man over the fear of God?
- ❖ We have a built-in desire to acquire and pursue treasure. How does our new life in Christ re-orient this desire? What does it free us from, and consequently, free us to do?
