PARAMENTS

Liturgical colors have an instructional purpose and point us to the life of Christ and the great acts of redemptive history.

These colored hangings, called paraments, adorn the pulpit, communion table, and baptismal font.

Red represents sacrifice and zeal.
It is displayed during Holy Week.

Celebration of Worship

The Greeting and Announcements

The Prelude

*God of all time,
as we prepare to worship you today and this week,
help us to call to mind these past events in Jesus' life so that we can sense their significance for our present lives and for the future you are preparing for all creation.*

*During this time, be prayerful and reverent in preparation for the worship of our holy God in His sanctuary.
(Please silence all phones and electronic devices.)*

The Call to Confession

John 12:12–13; John 19:14–15

Leader: A large crowd heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem. So they took branches of palm trees and went out to meet him, crying out, Unison: “Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, even the King of Israel!”

Leader: Pilate said to the Jews, “Behold your King!” They cried out,

Unison: “Away with him, away with him, crucify him!”

Leader: Pilate said to them, “Shall I crucify your King?” The chief priests answered,

Unison: “We have no king but Caesar.”

The Individual Prayers of Confession

The Assurance of Pardon

from Psalm 118

Leader: Let those who fear the LORD say, “His steadfast love endures forever.” Out of my distress I called on the LORD; the LORD answered me and set me free. The LORD is my strength and my song; he has become my salvation. I shall not die, but I shall live, and recount the deeds of the LORD.

† The Hymn of Trust

Hymns of Grace

My Song Is Love Unknown

The Prayers of the People

*God calls us to be a praying people.
Let us join in prayer, offering our praise,
thanksgiving, and intercession to God.*

The Lord's Prayer

Unison: Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

The Offertory

Our offering is an act of worship in which we express our gratitude and reliance on God.

For those of you who are guests with us today, giving is not obligatory.

We are eager to share with you more about our church and its ministry and to invite you to participate with us as you are called by God.

If you have filled out a visitor's card, please place it in the plate as it is passed.

The Postlude

*As you leave the sanctuary today, may you know the hope to which God has called you, experience the riches of his glorious inheritance in the saints,
and trust his incomparably great power for us who believe.*

*Please help us love our community by recycling your unneeded bulletins as you leave.
A recycling bin is located by the door in the narthex.*

NOTES

DISCUSSION AND APPLICATION

- ❖ What are the people in Jerusalem expecting as they shout and wave branches ahead of Jesus? What are you expecting of Jesus?
- ❖ Consider the posture of Jesus as he enters the city and what this ride on a donkey is communicating. How might this inform your own entrance and life in the kingdom of God?
- ❖ Do you believe your life is going according to plan? Oh wait, whose plan are we talking about? Answer that question first and then consider the main question of “Who is King?” in your life.
- ❖ Identify a few things you could do this week to show your allegiance to King Jesus. [I encourage you to write these things down and keep them in front of you or you won't give them a second thought]
