PARAMENTS

Liturgical colors have an instructional purpose and point us to the life of Christ and the great acts of redemptive history.

These colored hangings, called paraments, adorn the pulpit, communion table, and baptismal font.

Green represents spiritual growth and world missions.

It is displayed during “ordinary time,” which is the period between Pentecost and Advent.

Leader: Bless the LORD, O my soul! O LORD my God, you are very great! You are clothed with splendor and majesty, covering yourself with light as with a garment, stretching out the heavens like a tent. O LORD, how manifold are your works! In wisdom have you made them all; the earth is full of your creatures. I will sing to the LORD as long as I live; I will sing praise to my God while I have being. May my meditation be pleasing to him, for I rejoice in the LORD.

The Call to Confession

Isaiah 64:6

Leader: We have all become like one who is unclean, and all our righteous deeds are like a polluted garment. We all fade like a leaf, and our iniquities, like the wind, take us away.

The Corporate Prayer of Confession

from *The Valley of Vision

Unison: O Lord, no day of our lives has passed without sin. We have uttered prayers from prayerless hearts; we have offered praise with a praiseless sound; our best deeds are as dirty rags in your sight. We have been guilty of pride and unfaithfulness, of failure to seek your mind in your Word, of failure to seek your face in our daily living. But though our sins rise to heaven, your mercy soars above them. Though our unrighteousness drags us down to the depths, your righteousness lifts us, with greater power, to your throne. Grant us to hear your voice assuring us that — by your wounds we are healed, by your brokenness we are made whole, by your descent into darkness we are brought into dazzling, eternal light. Give us joyful brokenheartedness; keep us always clinging to your cross, flood us every moment with your grace, flowing deep and strong through our lives. In Jesus' name, Amen.

The Individual Prayers of Confession

The Assurance of Pardon

Titus 3:3–7

Leader: We ourselves were once foolish, disobedient, led astray, slaves to various passions and pleasures, passing our days in malice and envy, hated by others and hating one another. But when the goodness and loving kindness of God our Savior appeared, he saved us, not because of works done by us in righteousness, but according to his own mercy, by the washing of regeneration and renewal of the Holy Spirit, whom he poured out on us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior, so that being justified by his grace we might become heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

- ❖ Has wisdom been an intimidating thing in your walk with Christ?
- ❖ What do you think having wisdom looks like?
- ❖ How can we know what the will of the Lord is?
- ❖ What do you think it looks like to make the best use of your time?
- ❖ How have you misunderstood what it meant to be filled with the Spirit?
- ❖ How do the ordinary means of grace help us walk in the Spirit?
