PARAMENTS

Liturgical colors have an instructional purpose and point us to the life of Christ and the great acts of redemptive history.

These colored hangings, called paraments, adorn the pulpit, communion table, and baptismal font.

Green represents spiritual growth and world missions. It is displayed during "ordinary time," which is the period between Pentecost and Advent.

Celebration of Worship

The Prelude

During this time, be prayerful and reverent in preparation for the worship of our holy God in His sanctuary. (Please silence all phones and electronic devices.)

* The Call to Worship

Leader: Praise the LORD! Praise the LORD from the heavens; praise him in the heights! Praise him, all his angels; praise him, all his hosts! Let them praise the name of the LORD, for his name alone is exalted; his majesty is above earth and heaven. He has raised up a horn for his people, praise for all his saints, for the people of Israel who are near to him. Praise the LORD!

The Call to Confession

Leader: "Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel, every one according to his ways, declares the Lord GOD. Repent and turn from all your transgressions, lest iniquity be your ruin. Cast away from you all the transgressions that you have committed, and make yourselves a new heart and a new spirit! Why will you die, O house of Israel? For I have no pleasure in the death of anyone, declares the Lord GOD; so turn, and live."

The Corporate Prayer of Confession

Unison: Out of the depths I cry to you, O LORD! O Lord, hear my voice! Let your ears be attentive to the voice of my pleas for mercy! If you, O LORD, should mark iniquities, O Lord, who could stand? But with you there is forgiveness, that you may be feared. I wait for the LORD, my soul waits, and in his word I hope; my soul waits for the Lord more than watchmen for the morning, more than watchmen for the morning.

The Individual Prayers of Confession

The Assurance of Pardon

Leader: O Israel, hope in the LORD! For with the LORD there is steadfast love, and with him is plentiful redemption. And he will redeem Israel from all his iniquities.

The Prayers of the People

God calls us to be a praying people. Let us join in prayer, offering our praise, thanksgiving, and intercession to God.

The Offertory

Our offering is an act of worship in which we express our gratitude and reliance on God. For those of you who are guests with us today, giving is not obligatory. We are eager to share with you more about our church and its ministry and to invite you to participate with us as you are called by God.

If you have filled out a visitor's card, please place it in the plate as it is passed.

The Postlude

As you leave the sanctuary today, may you know the hope to which God has called you, experience the riches of his glorious inheritance in the saints, and trust his incomparably great power for us who believe.

Please help us love our community by recycling your unneeded bulletins as you leave. A recycling bin is located by the door in the narthex.

NOTES

DISCUSSION AND APPLICATION

- Why was Moses' anger justified? Is there anything in the text that helps us with this? What are the dangers of unchecked anger? What is usually underneath our anger?
- In their idol worship, the people had lost all restraint. When do you struggle with self-control? How might this be applied to the worship of God's people? Does this mean restraining all impulses or emotions?
- What is the real motivation behind our pursuit of holiness? Do you see the Lord's discipline as a special grace in your life?
- How do we see the mediation of Moses fulfilled in Jesus? Are you willing to follower your Savior and King in death to self and to this world?
