PARAMENTS

Liturgical colors have an instructional purpose and point us to the life of Christ and the great acts of redemptive history.

These colored hangings, called paraments, are seen on the pulpit, communion table, and baptismal font.

Green represents spiritual growth and world missions.

It is displayed during “ordinary time,” which is the period between Pentecost and Advent.

Nº 326

✠ The Call to Worship

Psalm 71:19–24

Leader: Your righteousness, O God, reaches the high heavens. You who have done great things, O God, who is like you? You who have made me see many troubles and calamities will revive me again; from the depths of the earth you will bring me up again. You will increase my greatness and comfort me again. I will also praise you with the harp for your faithfulness, O my God; I will sing praises to you with the lyre, O Holy One of Israel. My lips will shout for joy, when I sing praises to you; my soul also, which you have redeemed. And my tongue will talk of your righteous help all the day long, for they have been put to shame and disappointed who sought to do me hurt.

✠ The Hymn of Praise

Hymns of Grace

We Praise Thee, O God, Our Redeemer

✠ The Prayer of Invocation

✠ Please stand, as able

The Call to Confession

Galatians 2:15–16

Leader: We ourselves are Jews by birth and not Gentile sinners; yet we know that a person is not justified by works of the law but through faith in Jesus Christ, so we also have believed in Christ Jesus, in order to be justified by faith in Christ and not by works of the law, because by works of the law no one will be justified.

The Assurance of Pardon thanksgiving, and intercession to God.*

The Lord's Prayer

Unison: Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

The Offertory

*Our offering is an act of worship in which we express our gratitude and reliance on God.
For those of you who are guests with us today, giving is not obligatory.
We are eager to share with you more about our church and its ministry and to invite you to participate with us as you are called by God.

NOTES

DISCUSSION AND APPLICATION

- ❖ How does the Israelite battle with the Amalekites give us a better understanding of life in the church? Where is the battle ground for Christians? How would you describe this warfare?
- ❖ What does preparation for this spiritual battle look like? What has God given us to counter the schemes of Satan?
- ❖ Where was the real power for Moses and the Israelites in this battle? How was it demonstrated? What grace has God given, what power does the church depend on for the battle?
- ❖ What is the significance of the banner in context? What banner unifies and gives courage and hope to the Christian?
