PARAMENTS

Liturgical colors have an instructional purpose and point us to the life of Christ and the great acts of redemptive history.

These colored hangings, called paraments, adorn the pulpit, communion table, and baptismal font.

Green represents spiritual growth and world missions.

It is displayed during “ordinary time,” which is the period between Pentecost and Advent.

Celebration of Worship

The Greeting and Announcements

The Prelude

*During this time, be prayerful and reverent in preparation for the worship of our holy God in His sanctuary.
(Please silence all phones and electronic devices.)*

† The Processional Hymn

Hymns of Grace

Come, Ye Thankful People, Come

N^o 436

† The Call to Worship

Psalm 95:1–3

Leader: Oh come, let us sing to the LORD; let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation! Let us come into his presence with thanksgiving; let us make a joyful noise to him with songs of praise! For the LORD is a great God, and a great King above all gods.

† The Hymn of Praise

Hymns of Grace

For the Beauty of the Earth

N^o 429

† The Prayer of Invocation

The Call to Confession

1 John 1:8–9

Leader: If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

† Please stand, as able

The Corporate Prayer of Confession

from The Worship Sourcebook

Unison: Holy God, you have given us many good gifts. Today we thank you for all of them, but we also confess that sometimes we love those gifts more than we love you. We confess wanting more and more things: food, clothes, toys, and money. Forgive us for not being content and thankful. Forgive our selfishness. Help us to love you more than everything else. We pray in Jesus' name. Amen.

The Individual Prayers of Confession

The Assurance of Pardon

Lamentations 3:22–26

Leader: The steadfast love of the LORD never ceases; his mercies never come to an end; they are new every morning; great is your faithfulness. "The LORD is my portion," says my soul, "therefore I will hope in him." The LORD is good to those who wait for him, to the soul who seeks him. It is good that one should wait quietly for the salvation of the LORD.

† The Hymn of Trust

Great Is Thy Faithfulness

Hymns of Grace

Nº 86

Our Worship in the World for the World

*Salvation and life in union with Christ frees us to worship and work for the glory of God and the fulfillment of our created purpose.
In obedience to His commission, we support the work of the church in all places and faithfully serve in the many vocations to which we have been called.*

The Prayers of the People

*God calls us to be a praying people.
Let us join in prayer, offering our praise,
thanksgiving, and intercession to God.*

The Offertory

Hymns of Grace

Our offering is an act of worship in which we express our gratitude and reliance on God.

For those of you who are guests with us today, giving is not obligatory.

We are eager to share with you more about our church and its ministry and to invite you to participate with us as you are called by God.

If you have filled out a visitor's card, please place it in the plate as it is passed.

The Postlude

*As you leave the sanctuary today, may you know the hope to which God has called you, experience the riches of his glorious inheritance in the saints,
and trust his incomparably great power for us who believe.*

*Please help us love our community by recycling your unneeded bulletins as you leave.
A recycling bin is located by the door in the narthex.*

NOTES

DISCUSSION AND APPLICATION

- ❖ What confidence do you have that God will keep his promises?
- ❖ We hear that it is God who inclines the hearts of his people to him, yet we also hear the call to the people to give their hearts wholly to the Lord. Is there a tension here? How do we hold these truths together?
- ❖ Unpack the phrase, “Worship requires sacrifice”. How does this relate to our ability to worship, as well as our worship practices?
- ❖ What is your attitude after leaving worship on a Sunday morning? How can we encourage each other to thankfulness and gladness of heart during the week?
