PARAMENTS

Liturgical colors have an instructional purpose and point us to the life of Christ and the great acts of redemptive history.

These colored hangings, called paraments, adorn the pulpit, communion table, and baptismal font.

Green represents spiritual growth and world missions.

It is displayed during “ordinary time,” which is the period between Epiphany and Lent.

Celebration of Worship

The Greeting and Announcements

The Prelude

*During this time, be prayerful and reverent in preparation for the worship of our holy God in His sanctuary.
(Please silence all phones and electronic devices.)*

✠ The Call to Worship

Psalm 8

Leader: O LORD, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth! You have set your glory above the heavens. When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars, which you have set in place, what is man that you are mindful of him, and the son of man that you care for him? Yet you have made him a little lower than the heavenly beings and crowned him with glory and honor. You have given him dominion over the works of your hands; you have put all things under his feet, all sheep and oxen, and also the beasts of the field, the birds of the heavens, and the fish of the sea, whatever passes along the paths of the seas. O LORD, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth!

✠ The Prayer of Invocation

The Reading of the Law

Westminster Shorter Catechism, 53–55

Leader: What is the third commandment?

Unison: The third commandment is, “You shall not take the name of the LORD your God in vain, for the LORD will not hold him guiltless who takes his name in vain.”

Leader: What is required in the third commandment?

Unison: The third commandment requires the holy and reverent use of God’s names, titles, attributes, ordinances, Word, and works.

Leader: What is forbidden in the third commandment?

Unison: The third commandment forbids all profaning or abusing of anything whereby God makes himself known.

The Call to Confession

Hebrews 4:15–16

Leader: We do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who in every respect has been tempted as we are, yet without sin. Let us then with confidence draw near to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

The Corporate Prayer of Confession

Unison: Our Father in heaven, you taught us to pray, “Hallowed be your name.” We often speak of you thoughtlessly, casually, and flippantly. Our words are not our only message – our lives also declare what we think and believe about you. Forgive us because of the work of Jesus Christ. Enable us to represent you faithfully in every dimension. Give us fear and love of you that causes us to call upon you in time of need rather than curse you, to pray humbly rather than seeking to manipulate you, to praise you rather than blame you, and to give thanks to you rather than grumble against you. Your name is above all names. Strengthen us that we may lift your name high in all things and at all times. In the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Amen.

The Individual Prayers of Confession

The Assurance of Pardon

Ezekiel 36:22–27

Leader: “Therefore say to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord GOD: It is not for your sake, O house of Israel, that I am about to act, but for the sake of my holy name, which you have profaned among the nations to which you came. And I will vindicate the holiness of my great name, which has been profaned among the nations, and which you have profaned among them. And the nations will know that I am the LORD, declares the Lord GOD, when through you I vindicate my holiness before their eyes. I will take you from the nations and gather you from all the countries and bring you into your own land. I will sprinkle clean water on you, and you shall be clean from all your uncleannesses, and from all your idols I will cleanse you. And I will give you a new heart, and a new spirit I will put within you. And I will remove the heart of stone from your flesh and give you a heart of flesh. And I will put my Spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes and be careful to obey my rules.”

The Offertory

Our offering is an act of worship in which we express our gratitude and reliance on God.

For those of you who are guests with us today, giving is not obligatory.

We are eager to share with you more about our church and its ministry and to invite you to participate with us as you are called by God.

If you have filled out a visitor's card, please place it in the plate as it is passed.

The Postlude

*As you leave the sanctuary today, may you know the hope to which God has called you, experience the riches of his glorious inheritance in the saints,
and trust his incomparably great power for us who believe.*

*Please help us love our community by recycling your unneeded bulletins as you leave.
A recycling bin is located by the door in the narthex.*

† As the elements are distributed, please wait until all are served so that we may partake together.

A Prayer of Belief: Lord Jesus Christ, I admit that I am weaker and more sinful than I ever dared admit, but through you I am more loved and accepted than I ever dared hope. I thank you for paying my debt on the cross, taking what I deserved in order to offer me complete forgiveness. Knowing that you have been raised from the dead, I turn from my sins and receive you as my Savior and Lord. Amen.
