PARAMENTS

Liturgical colors have an instructional purpose and point us to the life of Christ and the great acts of redemptive history.

These colored hangings, called paraments, adorn the pulpit, communion table, and baptismal font.

Green represents spiritual growth and world missions.

It is displayed during “ordinary time,” which is the period between Epiphany and Lent.

Celebration of Worship

The Greeting and Announcements

The Prelude

*During this time, be prayerful and reverent in preparation for the worship of our holy God in His sanctuary.
(Please silence all phones and electronic devices.)*

† The Hymn of Praise

Hymns of Grace

All Creatures of Our God and King

N^o 11

† The Call to Worship

Psalm 92:1–4

Leader: A Psalm. A Song for the Sabbath.

*It is good to give thanks to the LORD, to sing praises to your name, O Most High;
to declare your steadfast love in the morning, and your faithfulness by night, to the music of the lute and the harp, to the melody of the lyre. For you, O LORD, have made me glad by your work; at the works of your hands I sing for joy.*

† The Prayer of Invocation

The Reading of the Law

Westminster Shorter Catechism; 57–58, 61

Leader: What is the fourth commandment?

Unison: The fourth commandment is, “Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy.”

Leader: What is required in the fourth commandment?

Unison: The fourth commandment requires the keeping holy to God such set times as he has appointed in his Word; expressly one whole day in seven, to be a holy sabbath to himself.

Leader: What is forbidden in the fourth commandment?

Unison: The fourth commandment forbids the omission or careless performance of the duties required, and the profaning the day by idleness, or doing that which is in itself sinful, or by unnecessary thoughts, words, or works, about our worldly employments or recreations.

The Call to Confession

Isaiah 56:1–2

Leader: Thus says the LORD: “Keep justice, and do righteousness, for soon my salvation will come, and my righteousness be revealed. Blessed is the man who does this, and the son of man who holds it fast, who keeps the Sabbath, not profaning it, and keeps his hand from doing any evil.”

The Corporate Prayer of Confession

Unison: Beloved Bestower of Sabbath and rest, our resistance to your explicit command to cease from striving, lay down our labor, and push the “stop” button on pressure and performance unmasks our maniacal self-reliance. We believe the lie that life finally depends upon our own work, which makes us rabidly resist stopping for a season of God-honoring refreshment. Sabbath-creating and Sabbath-commanding King, graciously assail every vestige of self-impressed folly that builds our life on us instead of you, and founds our life’s rhythm on frenzy, not friendship, with you. Give sabbatical repentance to our exhausted hearts and minds as you bid us afresh in Gospel grace to rest as your children. In the name of the Sabbath himself, Jesus, our Lord, Amen.

The Individual Prayers of Confession

The Assurance of Pardon

Matthew 11:28–30

Leader: “Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.”

The Prayers of the People

*God calls us to be a praying people.
Let us join in prayer, offering our praise,
thanksgiving, and intercession to God.*

The Lord’s Prayer

Unison: Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

The Offertory

*Our offering is an act of worship in which we express our gratitude and reliance on God.
For those of you who are guests with us today, giving is not obligatory.
We are eager to share with you more about our church and its ministry and to invite you to participate with us as you are called by God.
If you have filled out a visitor’s card, please place it in the plate as it is passed.*
