PARAMENTS

Liturgical colors have an instructional purpose and point us to the life of Christ and the great acts of redemptive history.

These colored hangings, called paraments, adorn the pulpit, communion table, and baptismal font.

Green represents spiritual growth and world missions.

It is displayed during “ordinary time,” which is the period between Epiphany and Lent.

The Reading of the Law

Westminster Shorter Catechism, 63–65

Leader: What is the fifth commandment?

Unison: The fifth commandment is, “Honor your father and your mother, that your days may be long in the land that the LORD your God is giving you.”

Leader: What is required in the fifth commandment?

Unison: The fifth commandment requires the preserving the honor, and performing the duties, belonging to everyone in their several places and relations, as superiors, inferiors, or equals.

Leader: What is forbidden in the fifth commandment?

Unison: The fifth commandment forbids the neglecting of, or doing anything against, the honor and duty which belongs to everyone in their several places and relations.

The Call to Confession

Romans 8:14–17

Leader: All who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. For you did not receive the spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received the Spirit of adoption as sons, by whom we cry, “Abba! Father!” The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs—heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, provided we suffer with him in order that we may also be glorified with him.

The Corporate Prayer of Confession

Unison: Holy Father, blessed Son, and beloved Holy Spirit: how gracious you are to have granted us, as your image-bearers, the distinct honor of reflecting your fatherhood and sonship within our homes, realities rooted in your eternal perfection and beauty as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Our calling to parent children faithfully and to be children who honor our parents seems to whisper of trinitarian wonder, however faintly. Our right obedience, respect, and relation to our father and mother can be virtual cracks in the universe to learn truths about you. On the other hand, we also better understand the searing pain and caustic confusion that commonly accompanies both parents and children who choose to distort your commanded roles in the home. Father of lights, infuse the most daily routines of family in our homes with parents who love and children who honor. And where both roles have been long ignored, you who are the Eternal Father, redesign our childlike hearts and minds to honor you as our Father in all we do. In the name of the Son of the Father, the Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Individual Prayers of Confession

The Assurance of Pardon

Ephesians 1:3–6

Leader: Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places, even as he chose us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and blameless before him. In love he predestined us for adoption to himself as sons through Jesus Christ, according to the purpose of his will, to the praise of his glorious grace, with which he has blessed us in the Beloved.
