Worship for the Lord's Day

June 28th, 2020 • 10:45 A.M.

Trinity Fellowship Church exists to glorify God by equipping a community of believers to worship God and be witnesses of Him in Central Arkansas and to the ends of the earth.

PARAMENTS

Liturgical colors have an instructional purpose and point us to the life of Christ and the great acts of redemptive history.

These colored hangings, called paraments, adorn the pulpit, communion table, and baptismal font.

Green represents spiritual growth and world missions.

It is displayed during “ordinary time,” which is the period between Pentecost and Advent.

† Call to Worship

Romans 8:28–31

Leader: We know that for those who love God all things work together for good, for those who are called according to his purpose. For those whom he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, in order that he might be the firstborn among many brothers. And those whom he predestined he also called, and those whom he called he also justified, and those whom he justified he also glorified.

Unison: What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us?

Reading of the Law

John 13:34–35

Leader: “A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another: just as I have loved you, you also are to love one another. By this all people will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.”

Call to Confession

1 John 4:7–8

Leader: Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God. Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love.

Corporate Prayer of Confession

Prone to Wander

Unison: God of glory and love,

You have loved us from the beginning with a vast and boundless love. You have called us to love one another as you have loved us, and we confess before you our complete unwillingness to obey this command. Forgive us, Lord.

Jesus, we thank you that we can have confidence before your Father because your blood has purified us from our sin. You took on our humanity and loved others on our behalf, forgiving and confronting people around you with sacrificial and generous compassion. You freely gave your life to provide us with a new record, and in you we have become lovers of others and commandment keepers.

Holy Spirit, we need your strength and help to survive our many failures to love others every day. Help us to believe that you love us, and cause that love to transform us radically into people who extend grace and mercy to others. Let us see the cross more clearly and more often, where the power of your love is openly displayed, where our sin is crushed and destroyed, and where our names are written in the wounds of our crucified Savior. We come in his name, amen.

Individual Prayers of Confession

Assurance of Pardon

1 John 4:9–10

Leader: In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins.

† Hymn of Trust

Hymns of Grace

The Power of the Cross

Nº 272

† Affirmation of Faith

Westminster Shorter Catechism, 86

Leader: What is faith in Jesus Christ?

Unison: Faith in Jesus Christ is a saving grace, whereby we receive and rest upon him alone for salvation, as he is offered to us in the gospel.

Prayers of the People

*God calls us to be a praying people.
Let us join in prayer, offering our praise,
thanksgiving, and intercession to God.*

Offertory

*Our offering is an act of worship in which we express our gratitude and reliance on God.
For those of you who are guests with us today, giving is not obligatory.
We are eager to share with you more about our church and its ministry and to invite you to participate with us as you are called by God.
Tithes and offerings may be placed in the plates in the narthex,
