BIBLE BELIEVING † CHRIST CENTERED † GRACE FILLED † GOSPEL DRIVEN

Worship for the Lord's Day

July 12th, 2020 • 10:45 A.M.

Trinity Fellowship Church exists to glorify God by equipping a community of believers to worship God and be witnesses of Him in Central Arkansas and to the ends of the earth.

PARAMENTS

Liturgical colors have an instructional purpose and point us to the life of Christ and the great acts of redemptive history.

These colored hangings, called paraments, adorn the pulpit, communion table, and baptismal font.

Green represents spiritual growth and world missions.

It is displayed during “ordinary time,” which is the period between Pentecost and Advent.

THE LORD’S SUPPER

We welcome all baptized Christians who have professed their faith in Jesus Christ for salvation and are members of congregations that proclaim the gospel to receive holy communion with us today.

If you are not able to receive communion, please use that time to meditate on the following prayer:

Lord Jesus Christ, I admit that I am weaker and more sinful than I ever dared admit, but through you I am more loved and accepted than I ever dared hope. I thank you for paying my debt on the cross, taking what I deserved in order to offer me complete forgiveness. Knowing that you have been raised from the dead, I turn from my sins and receive you as my Savior and Lord. Amen.

Celebration of Worship

Greeting and Announcements

Prelude

*During this time, be prayerful and reverent in preparation for the worship of our holy God in His sanctuary.
(Please silence all phones and electronic devices.)*

✠ Call to Worship

Psalm 24

Leader: The earth is the LORD's and the fullness thereof, the world and those who dwell therein, for he has founded it upon the seas and established it upon the rivers.

Who shall ascend the hill of the LORD? And who shall stand in his holy place? He who has clean hands and a pure heart, who does not lift up his soul to what is false and does not swear deceitfully. He will receive blessing from the LORD and righteousness from the God of his salvation. Such is the generation of those who seek him, who seek the face of the God of Jacob.

Lift up your heads, O gates! And be lifted up, O ancient doors, that the King of glory may come in. Who is this King of glory? The LORD, strong and mighty, the LORD, mighty in battle! Lift up your heads, O gates! And lift them up, O ancient doors, that the King of glory may come in. Who is this King of glory? The LORD of hosts, he is the King of glory!

Reading of the Law

Exodus 20:8

Leader: What is the fourth commandment?

Unison: The fourth commandment is, “Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy.”

Call to Confession

Isaiah 58:13–14

Leader: “If you turn back your foot from the Sabbath, from doing your pleasure on my holy day, and call the Sabbath a delight and the holy day of the LORD honorable; if you honor it, not going your own ways, or seeking your own pleasure, or talking idly; then you shall take delight in the LORD, and I will make you ride on the heights of the earth; I will feed you with the heritage of Jacob your father, for the mouth of the LORD has spoken.”

Corporate Confession of Sin

Unison: Creator God,

At the beginning of time you created a day of rest, a sign pointing forward to the eternal rest that we will share with you forever. You now ask your people to set aside one day in seven—to rest and to worship; to remember our deliverance from bondage to sin; to know that all our needs come from your hands. We thank you for this precious gift, yet we misuse it in so many ways. For some of us it is a day to keep rules, impress others with our piety, and parade our righteousness instead of needing yours. Father, forgive us.

For some of us, Sunday is a day like any other day: a day to catch up on work, to play and recreate with no thought of you and no desire to make worship and fellowship a priority. Lord, have mercy on us in our weakness and sin.

Jesus, you loved your Father above all and delighted to worship and study in his house. From your childhood, you were a careful scholar, dedicating yourself to studying and teaching others. Your heart was never cold, but always warmly devoted to living in gratitude, faith, and obedience. Jesus, thank you for honoring the Sabbath for us, in your heart and with your body.

Holy Spirit, correct our thinking and strengthen our souls. Remind us of the love of Christ until our hearts are humbly drawn to hunger for God’s Word preached faithfully. Help us to understand your Word and to know what you ask of us. Help us to worship wholeheartedly, and strengthen us with the body and blood of Christ at the Lord’s Table. May all other things seem small and insignificant compared to loving and obeying you well, as we look forward to worshipping you forever, gathered with all the saints around your throne. Amen.

Assurance of Pardon

Matthew 11:28–30

Leader: “Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.”

Prayers of the People and the Lord’s Prayer

Unison: Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Offertory

Our offering is an act of worship in which we express our gratitude and reliance on God.

For those of you who are guests with us today, giving is not obligatory.

We are eager to share with you more about our church and its ministry and to invite you to participate with us as you are called by God.

*Tithes and offerings may be placed in the plates in the narthex, or you may give online at trinityfellowshipca.org/give,
or by texting GIVE to 501-456-4896.*

Postlude

As you leave the sanctuary today, may you know the hope to which God has called you, experience the riches of his glorious inheritance in the saints, and trust his incomparably great power for us who believe.

*Please help us love our community by recycling your unneeded bulletins as you leave.
A recycling bin is located by the door in the narthex.*

‡ As the elements are distributed, please wait until all are served so that we may partake together.
